Our Collective Responsibility for Mass Shootings

For far too long, online forums and marketplaces have been granted near-total immunity when they contribute to gun violence.

The matter of a secret conspiracy that no one can talk about.

In the halls of all time history it will be told of a man on a mission of peace, that the establishment of authority picked on so badly, hated on, harassed, persecuted, and treated like dirt and scum of the Earth that he actually changed his United States

Citizenry to some other country that did not allow the haters to win. He kept warning them of impending doom, but they just would not listen to him. Slighted by basically the entire society based on the prejudiced point of view against his challenges of mental conditions of BiPolar disorder and his born this way sexuality of his choice to not hide his naturally born sexuality within his lifestyle as being a gay homosexual. Homosexuals are a major population that is affected by the HIV/AIDS disease that he acquired knowledge of his status of being infected by the HIV virus in September of 1999. Under this state of oppression the greater society, this peace man had no true community impact voice. This is intentionally setup as a system of hate conspiracy across the entire nation.

You see what is also true, the society that had been build up on a foundation of moral turpitude that is not wise,

Simply put, it is foundationally structured there in the United States of America in a systematic scheme to encourage the populous that to get anywhere up in the social tiers of success, one must lie, cheat, and steal their way to the top. The house of cards that is built up in this process, he writes an statement onto his web domains and also posted some profound views of this reality on YouTube.

Pros

The mission at CHN is good.

Cons

Very caddy work environment for the most part.

Former Employee - Client Services in Denver, CO

Doesn't Recommend

Negative Outlook

I worked at Colorado Health Network (Less than a year)

Pros

Case Managers are not micro-managed, occasionally drug companies will come in and bring free lunch, relaxed dress code, on a major bus line

Cons

Management is awful. They do not trust their employees with anything - not even tissues. If you want a box of tissues you have to go to upstairs and talk to the them. One person stores them in his office.

They had a big "investigation" because two employees quit because of racism and discrimination within the organization - the "investigation" was "inconclusive". They had a meeting with all of the staff (that was announced 24 hrs prior). Regarding discrimination. It was said that we were diverse "we have one of everything". How can an organization thrive when a top official is racist?

If you are a woman or person of color, it is very hard to move up in the org and be heard. If you are a cute, white male, you will do well in this company.

Turnover is high!

Advice to Management

Maybe start with a little bit of respect (for clients and staff)?

"Low pay, oppressive management, dishonest business practices..."

Current Employee - Anonymous Employee

Doesn't Recommend

Negative Outlook

I have been working at Colorado Health Network full-time (Less than a year)

Pros

Brand new facility, friendly coworkers, easy access to downtown. Interviews are too easy. Great benefits. Benefits those less fortunate.

Cons

Oppressive leadership, disingenuous management, dishonest business practices. I really wan to like this place but the management could use some training. I have witnessed some dishonest business practices going on here. Toxic work environment. Pay is very low. Upper level management is very elitist, discriminating, and oppressive toward other staff.

Advice to Management

Take some training courses to learn how to perform your job better. Many may have landed in their current positions due to the Peter Principle. Do some house cleaning, see who actually contributes to the successful functioning of the company and trim the fat. Just because someone is fun outside of work and makes you laugh does not mean they are competent managers that need to be leading other people. Take a look in the mirror.. WHY DO YOU ALL HUMANS LIE SO MUCH?

You really should readdress yourself to actually respect the citizen that you have dismissed in his own home. His name is Jame Martin Driskill and is age 54. This home has been in the family resource since he has been age 5. Mr. Driskill is a native born resident of San Bernardino born in Saint Bernardine's Hospital on September 1st, 1965. He among his credits of contributions to this city in his adult youth was responsible for the technical code programming of the original placement Cosand Computer Center Lab at the main branch Norman Feldheim Library.

GRUW UP
GREAT REASONS URBANS
WILL UNITE PEACE

You Human There!! Are you GRUW UP?

If it was not for the voluntary efforts that eventually turned into an employment opportunity that the city itself benefited by being able to provide a computer literacy program throughout the entire library system. If it was not for this man, there most likely would not have been a vision of possibility to obtain the grants and the funding for the full lab's first creation presence on the 2nd floor for what was his contribution of the coded desk manager and the bulletin board interface in 1985 lasted even through the Y2K bug with barley no assistance from the original programming author remotely to then computer lab assistant Kip Anderson. Kip's response to Mr Driskill was that his code was written so clean and understandable, it was a simple fix for needed compliance of all computer systems throughout the world.

All of this before is a part of true history which makes the Driskill Family here in San Bernardino a very long term occupant residency in this County and City of San Bernardino.

In that dismissal of disregard, in a public official capacity, an obvious request was made that the adult man who has a sense of something wrong in the meeting affair just conducted was basically asked to leave the presence while the law enforcement agent conducted a verbal exchange with his mother outside as the officers were leaving. The man of 54 was treated like a child in his own home and that is a fact of truth to the tale that is being boldly told here.

It would not matter what the subject matter was, unless of course the law enforcement agent was attempting to talk with my mother to obtain some kind of private affair, such as a bootie call to say it with blunt force here or was to talk with his mother behind the back of the complaining citizen.

What we call this is UNPROFESSIONALISM and his highly reported in the Glassdoor reports/reviews of the social service agencies of the Ryan

White Care Act within the employee tier work environments constructed under these strangeness conditions.

The observance of a conspiracy known to the internal actors and how externally viewed causes those conspirators to act UNPROFESSIONAL in the attitudes of these intervolvement circumstances, as though no one is paying attention of their biases.

This matter point blank blunt to the decent of those effected by it as persons living with HIV/AIDS is

FUCKED UP HUMAN -- SO FAR CALLING IT OUT ---

IT REMAINS A SECRET AGENDA SO TABOO TO HAVE A COMMUNITY AFFAIRS DISCUSSION ON HOW TO FIX THIS WEIGHTY TRUTH --- THE

ACTORS INVOLVED ACT AS UNTOUCHABLES AND THE DEFENDERS OF THIS SYSTEM REACT TO THIS AS HEARTLESS CREEPS --- THIS MATTER

REMAINS UNCHALLENGED UNTIL AT LEAST ONE ACTOR OF COMMUNITY IMPORTANCE TAKES THE LEAD AND RESPOND AN ACTION OF

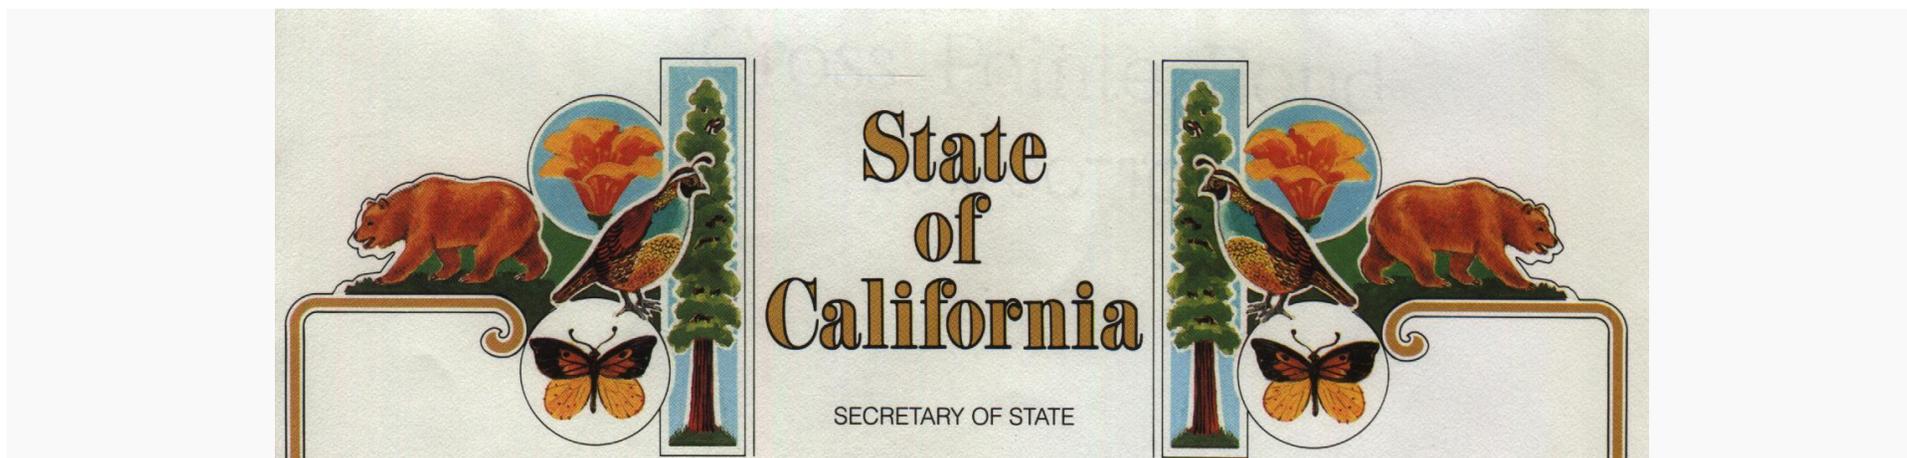

SOME KIND OF NORMALCY ON THESE CIRCUMSTANCES TO HOLD THE TRUTH TO THE MAX AND HOLD MORAL AGENCY TO THE TRUTH AND FINALLY....

YOU HAVE AN OBLIGATION TO PROTECT AND SERVE,

TO RESPOND A RESPONSE OF RESPONSIBILITY!

Great Reasons Us Will Unite Peace

----- All of us are quite aware of, and deeply worried by, the disturbing social and political situation of the world today. Our world is increasingly a place of violent conflict, hatred and brutal atrocities, committed even in the name of God and of religion. We know that no religion is immune from forms of individual delusion or ideological extremism. This means that we must be especially attentive to every type of fundamentalism, whether religious or of any other kind. A delicate balance is required to combat violence perpetrated in the name of a religion, an ideology or an economic system, while also safeguarding religious freedom, intellectual freedom and individual freedoms. But there is another temptation which we must especially guard against: the simplistic reductionism which sees only good or evil; or, if you will, the righteous and sinners. The contemporary world, with its open wounds which affect so many of our brothers and sisters, demands that we confront every form of polarization which would divide it into these two camps. We know that in the attempt to be freed of the enemy without, we can be tempted to feed the enemy within. To imitate the hatred and violence of tyrants and murderers is the best way to take their place. That is something which you, as a people, reject. Our response must instead be one of hope and healing, of peace and justice. We are asked to summon the courage and the intelligence to resolve today's many geopolitical and economic crises. Even in the developed world, the effects of unjust structures and actions are all too apparent. Our efforts must aim at restoring hope, righting wrongs, maintaining commitments, and thus promoting the well-being of individuals and of peoples. We must move forward together, as one, in a renewed spirit of fraternity and solidarity, cooperating generously for the common good. The challenges facing us today call for a renewal of that spirit of cooperation, which has accomplished so much good throughout the history of the United States. The complexity, the gravity and the urgency of these challenges demand that we pool our resources and talents, and resolve to support one another, with respect for our differences and our convictions of conscience.

Words To Live By

Art thou dejected?
Is thy mind o'er-cast?
To chase thy gloom,
Go fix some weighty truth;
Chain down some passion; do some generous good;
Teach Ignorance to see, or Grief to smile;
Correct thy friend; befriend thy greatest foe;
Be just in all things; make amends
For follies past, and, with warm heart,
Forgive, and be forgiven. Let work not words
Thy virtue prove. Go act as well as prate,
And then thy counsels will be strong,
Thy reprimands avail. —ANON

THE province of the historian is to gather the threads of the past ere they elude forever his grasp and weave them into a harmonious web to which the art preservative may give immortality. Therefore he who would rescue from fast gathering oblivion the deeds of a community and send them on to futurity in an imperishable record should deliver a plain unvarnished tale.

Sweet plant of Paradise! its seeds are sown
In here and there a breast of heavenly mould;
It rises slow and buds, but ne'er was known
To blossom here—the climate is too cold.
—SHERIDAN.

Happiness.—Holiness in Relation to

Happiness is proportioned to holiness; happiness is only holiness; and all that is lacking to holiness is so much subtracted from happiness, so much curtailed from salvation.—Prof. VINEY.

Happiness.—Our Truest

I am quite sure that our truest happiness is not to seek our own—just to forget ourselves—and to fill up the little space that remains, seeking only, and above all, that God may be glorified.—M'CHIEYNE.

Happiness.—The Reflectiveness of

Surely happiness is reflective, like the light of heaven; and every countenance bright with smiles, and glowing with innocent enjoyment, is a mirror transmitting to others the rays of a supreme and ever-shining benevolence.—W. IRVING.

Happiness.—The Safety of the Christian's

All the sufferings and distresses of this world are not able to destroy the Christian's happiness, nor to diminish it; yea, they cannot at all touch it; it is out of their reach. If it were built on worldly enjoyments, then worldly privations and sufferings might shake it, yea, might undo it; when those rotten props fall, that which rests on them must fall. But the believer's happiness is safe, out of the reach of shot. He may be impoverished, and imprisoned, and tortured, and killed, but this one thing is out of hazard; he cannot be miserable: still in the midst of all these.

happiness; and to make it so in reality, nothing is necessary but the balm of Gospel peace and the saving knowledge of Christ.—COURCZY.

Happiness.—The Way to Obtain

Go, fix some weighty truth;
Chain down some passion; do some generous deed;
Teach ignorance to see, or grief to smile;
Correct thy friend, befriend thy greatest foe;
Or, with warm heart and confidence divine,
Spring up, and lay strong hold on Him who made thee.—Dr. E. YOUNG.

Hardness.—Enjoined.

Endure hardness. Never dream of a delicacy. Think not to find God in the gardens of Egypt, whom Moses found not but in the burning bush. Many love Canaan, but loathe the wilderness—commend the country, but look upon the conquest as impossible—would sit in the seat of honour with Zebulun's children, but not drink the cup of affliction.—TRAPP.

Hardship.—The Importance of

Hardship is the native soil of manhood and self-reliance. He that cannot abide the storm without flinching or quailing, strips himself in the sunshine, and lies down by the way-side to be overlooked and forgotten. He who but braces himself to the struggle when the winds blow, gives up when they have done, and falls asleep in the stillness that follows.—J. NEAL.

Harmony.—The Power of

In harmony the very image and character of virtue and vice are perceived, the mind delighted with their resemblances, and brought, by having them often iterated, into a love of the things them-
